FINAL JUDGMENT

By agreement of the parties as set out in the court's scheduling order,¹ defendant's motion for summary judgment was the agreed vehicle employed by the parties for resolving plaintiff's complaint for release of documents under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, et seq. In the course of the summary judgment proceedings, defendant voluntarily released additional documents which had been in dispute. The court granted defendant's motion for summary judgment as to the adequacy of defendant's search and defendant's assertion of FOIA Exemption 6.² After completing its in camera review related to defendant's assertion of FOIA Exemption 5, the court ruled upon the parties' remaining disagreements as to the disclosure of documents.³ On
